Fire Departments and their Cost.

We find in the Philadelphia Insurance Reporter of the 15th ultimo, a comparative cost of the various fire departments of the country, and the number of companies attached to the same. We give the list below, and would call particular attention to the fact that, while Savannah has one of the most effective fire organizations in the Union, it is supposed at a cost of not more than one-third of that of any other city. This is a fact worthy of notice, and we submit to such of our Councilmen who are disposed to object when the Department asks for additional means to increase its efficiency. The statement is made up for the year 1871, and is as follows:

New York, 55 companies, paid		$937,863
Boston, 36 companies, paid		446,179
St. Louis, Mo., 12 companies, paid		131,498

What Dickens Did.

The London Times closes a very elaborate review of Mr. Foster's book with this tribute to the genius of Charles Dickens:

Before the power of his pen many an old iniquity, whether it existed in spite of law, or pleaded an immunity sanctioned by law for its continuance, went down and was extinguished forever. Where are all the Yorkshire schools which starved so many "Smikes," and where those Ecclesiastical Courts under the cramine of which such legalized injustice was perpetrated? They exist no longer, and to their extinction the humor of Dickens mainly contributed. There are things so odious and at the same time so ridiculous that you have only to point them out and they cease to exist; to mock at them and they are extinguished forever. So it was with Dickens. He pointed them out and they vanished; he laughed at them and the world beheld them no more. That he was often vulgar in manners and dress, and often overbearing; that he was ill at ease in the intercourse with gentlemen; that he preferred being a King in very low company; that even in his early days he lived rather in a clique than in society; that he was something of a Bohemian in his best moments—all these are truths affecting the private character of the man and his social position, but of little worth when weighed against the transcendant merit of his works. Such as he was, we in our generation are never likely to behold his equal.

About Women.

The favorite Sultana of his Majesty of Turkey is only 11 years old.

A Frenchwoman in Toledo, wife of a fisherman, speared 500 pike in four days.

Boston papers say that New York wives, when enraged against their spouses, call them custom house frauds.

Knoxville, Tennessee, has a youthful feminine tax collector, Miss Lucy Stevens, who collects more in a day than a dozen male publicans could in a fortnight.

A Western girl who has been brought up knocks down every man that kisses her, and she is so pretty that half the married and all the single men in town have black eyes.

In Greece the men and not the women devote their lives to dress, and complain of "nothing to wear." They spend all their money in the purchase of fine clothes, and all their time in pinking and adorning themselves. The women on the contrary devote very little attention to the all important subject, and seem devoid of vanity.

News Condensed.

Connecticut has sixteen daily newspapers.

It cost $337,129 07 to light Boston's streets with gas last year.

The snow is eleven feet deep on a level in Nevada county, California.

The new city directory of St. Louis estimates the present population at 875,000.

During 1871 there were seventy-six horses in this country that trotted their mile in 2:30 or less.

Cincinnati is said to be the most densely populated city in the United States, having 36,000 people to the square mile against New York's 23,000.

George Jacques, of Worcester, Mass., has given the city one hundred and fifty thousand feet of land, valued at $50,000, as a site for a city hospital.

Literary.

Wales has but one daily paper, the Western Mail, and that is Conservative.

In Rome the foundation is projected of a kind of International Library Club.

Mrs. Emma Southwood has written another book—The Lost Heir of Linlithgow.

Public libraries are encouraged by the State in Chili, and some few towns now have them.

It is rumored that Thurlow Weed does not do much at his autobiography at present, owing to brain trouble.

The finding of the stone at Medebea, in Moab, purporting to have been set up by Moses, turns out to be a hoax.

PARTING HAIR IN THE MIDDLE.—Effeminate men have long considered it the thing to part the hair of their heads in the middle, while, on the other hand, dashing young women, given to masculine ways, delight to appear with short curly hair, parted at the side. In both cases the "parties" show themselves in their true character. It would be well if the law allowed them to change costumes with each other. By a Paris letter it appears that this side parting is to be a fashion. We doubt it, mainly because such a division cannot be becoming unless long tresses are sacrificed, and few of the belles will consent to that. It is fortunate that such is the case. We do not deny that a handsome girl adds to—can we say her beauty? or, rather her style—by parting her hair at the side, but it gives an air of fastness that we should not like to see the custom become general. We are of the same opinion in the matter as was the gentleman of tilting hoops, who said: "Well, I rather do like tilters, so long as they are worn by other fellows' wives."

☞ The celebrated lady doctor, Miss Fowler, in practice in New Jersey, was recently married, and is now Mrs. Ormsby. She is a sister of Fowler, the phrenologist, and has met with extraordinary success as a medical practitioner of the homeopathic school. Her income from her practice has for years past been from $15,000 to $20,000 per year. She treats patients of both sexes, has the names of over 600 families on her practice books, and has more business than all the half dozen male doctors of the place put together. In carrying on her profession she drives between forty and fifty miles every day. She is remarkably successful as a doctor. She is a handsome woman of forty, clear-headed, stout-hearted, strong-willed, vivacious, and intellectual.

☞ The Legislature of Minnesota visited the asylum for the dumb at Fairbault recently, and received the following curious and rather ludicrous address: "For you are the men to furnish the means to help the man that built the mill that ground the feed that fed the horse that drew the cart that dumped the dirt that Paddy shoveled to build the road for palace cars to go upon. These are the men that make our laws, and furnish the means to buy a house to cover our heads, that warm our toes, that fill our mouths, that give us food that feeds the mind, that makes us men and women strong, to lean upon; we bid you welcome, and for aye shall strive your kindness to repay."

☞ A Vermont woman, aged only 38, laughs the Indian sisterhood to scorn, having already accomplished her fourth husband and fourteenth baby, with two martial funerals, and a couple of divorces.—World.

☞ A "gent" was once asked what kind of a "gal" he preferred for a wife. One, he said, that wasn't prodi-gal, but fru-gal, a true-gal, and suited to his conju-gal taste.

Macon and the Great Western Canal.

Macon appreciates the importance of the great canal, and has appointed a delegation to go to Washington to urge the matter. This delegation is a very fine one. It consists of Colonel Thomas Hardeman, Colonel L. N. Whittle and Colonel John B. Weems.

☞ It appears there are some pretty hard places out West. For instance, a Western paper advertises as follows:

"Wanted, at this office, an able-bodied hard-featured, bad-tempered, not-to-be put-off and not-to-be-backed-down freckled face young man to collect for this paper; must furnish his own horse, saddle-bags, pistols, whisky, bowie knife and cowhide. We will furnish the accounts. To such we promise constant and laborious employment."

☞ Thomas A. R. Nelson and John Baxter of Tennessee are out in a card stating very solemnly that a disorganization of the Democratic party is essential to the defeat of the Radicals."

This is about as cool a piece of absurd effrontery as hath come unto our observation in several ages.

Let Blodgett join this crowd right away, and such a trio of jokers as they are can never be matched.

The State Agricultural Convention.

The meeting of this body in Savannah promises to be a great occasion. Our Savannah friends with their accustomed public spirit are making preparations for a most hospitable entertainment of the delegates.

THE CONSTITUTION will be represented there by its editor in-chief, who will also represent the city with Mayor James in urging Atlanta's claims for the Fair.

Hubbard.

The Northern Democracy is very busy hunting war Democrats for leaders. Hubbard, the Democratic candidate for Governor in Connecticut, thus pointedly talked ten years ago:

"I have but one idea to-day, and that is the prosecution of this war to the last leaf of the last chapter. If I had the control of affairs there should be but one party, and that party should have but one platform, and that platform one plank, and that plank should be the extermination of rebellion and the restoration of the Republic. He who doubts now is damned. I was for compromise till it became dishonorable."

The Agricultural Convention at Washington.

The National Agricultural Convention at Washington has closed its labors.

A delegate just returned informs us that while there was the utmost social and personal consideration extended to the Southern delegates, yet in the official transactions of the body, there was an evident disposition of the Northern members to underrate the scientific knowedge of the Southerners. This thing cropped out right arrogantly on several occasions, and if persisted in might result in a final declension of Southern delegates to participate in such conventions.

Criminals.

From statistics submitted to the National Prison Association at their recent meeting, it appears that the prison population of the country number about 40,000, of whom 16,000 are confined in forty State Prisons, 12,000 in Houses of Correction and other institutions of reform, and 8,000 are awaiting trial or detained as witnesses.

It is well this mass of vice is diffused. Concentration in one locality would be fearful.

It must be admitted, however, that as near a consolidation of the crime in one spot, as has ever transpired, was when the Radical carpet-bag element was achieving Southern reconstruction.

Additional Commissioners Appointed to Hear Southern Claims for Compensation.

The Southern Claims Commission have appointed additional Commissioners to take testimony in the Southern States in cases under $3,000 in amount: W. E. Connelly, of Wedowee, Ala.; D. S. Thornburgh, of New Market, Tenn.; Henry R. Whitfield, of Columbus, Miss. Special Commissioner Andrew Sloan, at Savannah, has resigned his appointment, and his successor will be appointed in a few days. Other commissioners are also to be appointed at Memphis and Huntington, Tenn. The late decision of the Supreme Court on the unconstitutionality of the "Drake amendment" does not affect this Commission, which is governed entirely by the act of Congress establishing it. Claimants will still have to rely upon other evidence than executive pardons and amnesty oath to prove their loyalty.

Legislative Cost.

Mr. Potter, of Massachusetts, has gathered some interesting facts relative to the average length and cost of legislative sessions in twenty-four leading States of the Union. The New Hampshire House of Representatives has the largest number of members—338—while the Delaware House has but 21. New Hampshire, however, has the smallest number of Senators—12—except Delaware, which has nine persons in the upper House. California pays her legislators $10 per diem, while those of Rode Island receive but $1 per day. The Kentucky Legislature meets but once in two years, and the average length of sessions is sixty days, while the Legislature of Massachusetts holds annual sessions of about 170 days. The Massachusetts Legislature is also ahead in the matter of expense. Law in the Bay State is enacted at the high cost of $256,000 per annum, while in Delaware the Legislature costs but $10,000 biennially; in Rhode Island, $8,000 annually; in New Jersey, $14,000 per year, and in New York, $48,000 annually.

AN INTERESTING TABLE.—An interesting table, showing the receipts and expenditures of the United States Government since 1791, by years and administrations, appears in the World Almanac for 1872. The statement of the total expenditures of the last Democratic administration compared with those of the last Republican administration is suggestive. Buchanan in four years spent $$33,183,260. Grant in two years has made away with

DECISIONS

—OF THE—

SUPREME COURT OF GEORGIA.

Delivered at Atlanta, Tuesday, Feb. 20, 1879.

[REPORTED EXCLUSIVELY FOR THE ATLANTA CONSTITUTION, BY N. J. HAMMOND, S. C. REPORTER.]

Benj. P. Kelly, administrator etc., vs. Leslie G. Carter. Motion to dismiss, under Relief Act, 1870. From Walton.

McCAY, J.

An affidavit by an administrator, in a suit pending in his favor, on a debt contracted with his intestate before the first of June, 1865, that "according to the best of his knowledge and belief and information all legal taxes had been paid on the same for each year since the same came into his possession as administrator, except for the years 1869 and 1870, deponent being advised that the note was so doubtful of collection that he was not required to pay taxes on the same for the years 1869 and 1870, being then considered doubtful if not uncollectable," is a substantial compliance with the 1st section of the act of October 13th, 1870.

2d. The fact that a widow and minors are interested as distributees, with other heirs and creditors of an estate, does not bring a suit on a note due an intestate and in suit by an administrator, within the 14th section of the Act of October 13th, 1870, so as to excuse the filing an affidavit and proof at the trial that all legal taxes due an the debt have been paid.

Judgement reversed.

Walker and McDaniel, for plaintiff in error.

J. W. Arnold, Hillyer & Bro., for defendant.

R. M. Smith vs. M. V. Brand. New trial, from Walton.

McCAY, J.

When on a bill filed for an account and settlement of the affairs of a partnership, there was an answer and the parties at issue, on the bill and answers, and there was a verdict for the plaintiff, and a motion for a new trial, on the ground that the Court erred in refusing to continue the cause and it appeared, on the hearing of the motion, by the sworn statements of the absent counsel, that one of them was prevented from attending Court by providential cause, and the other, because the Judge had informed him, in open Court, at the regular term at the time he had fixed the day for the adjourned term at which the case was tried, that he had given Mr. Walker leave of absence from the adjourned term, and that none of his cases would be tried; that Mr. Walker was a leading counsel for the plaintiff in this case, and was counsel in all the cases in which the absent counsel was employed; that he had so publicly notified the Court, and that trusting to this he had not attended the said adjourned term:

HELD, That it was no abuse of the discretion vested in the Judge, in such cases, to grant a new trial.

Walker & McDaniel, W. W. Clark, Hillyer & Bro., for plaintiff in error.

J. W. Arnold, Glenn & Dunlap, J. J. Floyd, for defendant.

Eliza Faircloth vs. Wm. St. Johns. Ejectment, from Mitchell.

McCAY, J.

1. Where A bargained land to B, taking his notes for the purchase money, giving his bond for titles, and afterwards indorsed one of the notes to C, who indorsed it to D, and B having paid some of the purchase money, abandoned the land, and A having died, his administrator took possession of the land.

HELD, That the indorser and minor children of A are entitled to a homestead in the land as against a judgment obtained by D on the indorsed note against B as principal, and A and C as indorsers. The equity of B, under his bond for titles, with some of the purchase money paid, to pay the purchase money and demand a title, does not, in such a case, make the lien of the judgment paramount to the homestead.

2. If, at the time of the sale of land by the sheriff, an application be pending for a homestead in favor of the family of the defendant, and notice thereof be given at the sale, the purchaser buys subject to the homestead.

Judgment reversed.

J. J Bradford, W. A. Byrd, Vason & Davis, Clark & Goss, for plaintiff in error.

W. E. Smith, G. J. Wright, for defendant.

James Seymour vs. H. Morgan. Injunction, from Dougherty.

McCAY, J.

1. Equity will not interfere to restrain a trespass, unless it affirmatively appears that the damage will be irreparable, or from the insolvency of the trespasser, or other cause, the remedy at law is incomplete.

2. A sheriff has no authority to put a purchaser of real estate, at a sheriff's sale, in possession, if to do so it is necessary to turn out a purchaser, from the defendant in execution whose title is anterior to the date of the judgment, even though it be true that, for some reason, the judgment was a lien anterior to its date, so that the purchaser gets a good title.

Judgment affirmed.

Vason & Davis, Clark & Goss, for plaintiff in error.

H. Morgan for defendant.

R. G. Fulgam vs. The Macon and Brunswick Railroad Company. Assumpsit, from Pulaski.

McCAY, J.

Where there was a subscription of stock to a railroad company, and when due the payment of the amount subscribed was demanded by the company, and payment was refused:

HELD, That it was not necessary for the company to show that it had issued, or offered to issue, the certificates of stock as a condition precedent to a right of recovery on the subscription.

Judgment affirmed.

Hansell & Hansell, Clark & Spencer, for plaintiff in error.

S. Hall, Charles C. Kibbee, by Reporter, for defendant.

John Adulph vs. J. W. Josey, administrator, etc. Motion to set aside verdict from Webster.

McCAY, J.

When a motion was made to set aside a verdict on the ground that the defendant—the loosing party—was prevented from attending the trial by serious sickness.

HELD, That that in such a case it is not necessary to file a brief of the testimony given at the trial, and it may be error in the court to refuse the motion for that reason.

Judgment reversed.

C. T. Goode, C. B. Wootten, for plaintiff in error.

B. S. Worrill by W. A. Hawkins, for defendant.

W. D. Owens vs. Mark L. Saunders. Case from Webster.

McCAY, J.

Where, in an action for damages for an assault and battery by the defendant upon the plaintiff, the defendant was a witness and was examined in full upon the case, and during the trial a bill of indictment, with a plea of guilty, for the same beating, and a judgment affixing a fine of two hundred dollars was introduced by the defendant in mitigation of damages—and after the evidence was closed and the argument of the counsel on both sides to the jury concluded, the court permitted the defendant to be re-introduced for the purpose of stating facts calculated to show that he had pleaded guilty under a mistaken impression derived from the Solicitor General, that it would be cheaper to plead guilty than to attempt to defend and that the fine would be very small.

HELD, That if no reason was shown why this evidence was not offered before the case was closed and the argument heard, the admission of it at the time was not fair to the plaintiff, and a new trial ought to be granted.

Judgement reversed.

Hawkins & Guerry, for plaintiff in error.

B. S. Worrill, J. L. Wimberly, by W. A. Hawkins, for defendant.

J. R. Wilcoxon, et al., vs. John H. Cook, Ordinary. Injunction, from Coweta.

McCAY, J.

1. The Ordinary of a county has no authority, under any general law of this State, even with the recommendation of the grand jury of the county, to borrow money on the credit of the county, and if, for this purpose, he issue county bonds and sell them, the county is not liable on the bonds so issued.

2. On a proper case made by bill in the name of citizens in the county—tax payers—it is the duty of the Judge of the Superior Court, as Chancellor, to restrain until the hearing, on the merits, an Ordinary from ordering such bonds to be paid by the Treasurer of the county, provided that the injunction be so framed as not to interfere with the right of the bondholders—who are not parties to the bill—to the use of every remedy they may set up against the county in the premises.

Judgment reversed.

S. Freeman, L. H. Featherston, J. B. S. Davis, J. S. Bigby, and Hugh Buchanan, for plaintiff in error.

H. Wright, Douglass, for defendant.

Wm. Akridge and George W. Allcorn vs. L. A. Pattillo. Award.

MONTGOMERY, J.

1. Where a controversy is submitted to arbitration under the Code, and the arbitrators and parties have several meetings, at the first of which only two of the arbitrators are present, and no objection is made by either party at the time to the absence of third arbitrator; it is too late, on motion to make the award the judgment of the court, to object to such motion on the ground of the absence of the third arbitrator from the first meeting, especially where the arbitrators were unanimous.

2. Where numerous objections are filed to an award, on the ground that the award was the result of accident, or mistake, or fraud of some one or all of the arbitrators or parties, or is otherwise illegal, all of which objections are, in effect, objections because the award is contrary to evidence, or the weight of evidence; the testimony submitted to the arbitrators should be before this court to enable it to pass intelligently upon the objections made. Nor will the fact, that the objections were demurred to for insufficiency dispense with this.

Judgment affirmed.

Clark & Pace, by E. P. Howell, for plaintiffs in error.

Walker & McDaniel, J. A. Billups, for defendant.

D. Good & Son vs. Nicholas Rawlins, Sheriff. Rule against Sheriff from Pulaski.

MONTGOMERY, J.

1. Where a Sheriff is ruled by a plaintiff in fi. fa. and answers, to which answer a traverse is filed and plaintiff, at a subsequent term, proposes to withdraw his traverse and substitute another, it is impossible for this court to say that the court below abused its discretion, in allowing the Sheriff a continuance on the ground of such substitution, unless we had the new traverse before us.

2. It is not necessary under Revised Code, section 3,898, that the consent of the mortgagor, mortgagee and plaintiff in fi. fa. levied, to sell the entire fee in the land levied on, should be in writing.

3. It follows, that where one, purporting to be the agent of the mortgagor, gives such consent, it is not necessary that the agency should be created by writing.

4. A ratification of the act of such agent by the mortgagor—supposing the agent had no authority at the time of sale—is valid under Revised Code, section 2,165.

5. It is not necessary for the court to apply the law, given in charge to the jury, to the facts of the case, when application is plainly apparent.

Judgment affirmed.

H. C. Duncan, W. L. Grice for plaintiff in error.

Hansell & Hansell, Pate & Ryan by Clark & Spencer, for defendant.

Nell McKay, Thos. J. Fletcher and R. H. Fletcher, administrators, vs. Richard Roe, casual ejector, and Geo. Kendrick and Cornelius Coffee, tenants. Ejectment from Sumter.

MONTGOMERY, J.

1. Where a defendent in ejectment relies on seven years adverse possession under color of title, he can claim, under such title, only so much of the land as the largest description in his deed will embrace.

2. If, at the time his grantor makes the deed to him, such grantor, by accident or design, points out more land than the largest description in the deed will embrace, and the defendant takes possession of the whole tract so pointed out, he is in, as to the overplus, only by the pedis possessio, and cannot set up prescriptive title as to that part unless he has so held it for twenty years.

3. The lessor of the the plaintiff can recover of a mere intruder upon prior possession alone.

4. Where the lessor of the plaintiff is ejected, he cannot be said to have voluntarily abandoned, because he does not resume possession immediately on the land becoming vacant again, especially where the defendant's witnesses testify that no such vacancy ever occurred.

Judgment reversed.

Hawkins and Guerry for plaintiff in error.

Hawkins & Burke for defendant.

Giles Jackson vs. the State. Voluntary Manslaughter, from Dougherty.

MONTGOMERY, J

1. Where in a trial for murder it appeared that diseased had threatend prisoner's life, whereupon prisoner left the field where the quarrel took place, returned in about twenty minutes and said, if deceased was going to whip him he was now ready for him, and deceased advanced upon him, pistol in hand, upon which prisoner shot and killed deceased, and the jury return a verdict of voluntary manslaughter, this court will not disturb the verdict.

2. Provocation by threats will in no case be sufficient to free the person killing from the crime of murder, or from manslamghter if the circumstances reduce the homicide to that grade.

3. Where counsel for prisoner consents that the jury may return their verdict to the Clerk, it implies a consent that they may disperse after having done so; and if the verdict so returned is one for "manslaughter," not specifying the grade, it is not error in the court to order the jury to reassemble and change ther verdict to either voluntary or involuntary manslaughter (and the jury do change it to voluntary manslaughter,) unless the prisoner can show that one or more of the jury have been tampered with, or that his case has been otherwise prejudiced by reason of the dispering of the jury.

The finding in this case is not contrary to the evinence.

Judgment affirmed.

G. J. Wright, for plaintiff in error.

No appearance for the State.

Goe. P. Thomas & Co., et al. vs. G. M. Stokes, administrator. Injunction, from Sumter.

MONTGOMERY, J.

Where the Judge of the Superior Court, in the exercise of his discretion, grants or refuses an injunction, this Court will not interfere, unless such discretion has been manifestly abused.

Judgment affirmed.

N. A. Smith by R. H. Clark.

P. Cook, W. A. Hawkins, for defendant.

Wm. Keen vs. James W. Rouse, Ordinary, etc. Mandamus, from Worth.

MONTGOMERY, J.

A Sheriff is not entitled to costs on tax fi. fas, whether for State or county taxes, unless the same be collected from the defendants. Nor does the fact that the fi. fas. issued illegally under order of the Inferior Court, alter the rules.

Judgment affirmed.

D. H. Pope, by J. D. Fope, for plaintiff in error.

Harris & Smith for defendant.

N. & A. F. Tift, plaintiffs in fi. fa., vs. D. A. Newsom, defendant in fi. fa., and Elizabeth Newsom, claimant.

MONTGOMERY, J.

Where a factor makes advances to a planter, and takes a lien upon the growing crops under Revised Code, section 1,977, such advances are in the nature of purchase money, and the lien is, therefore, superior to the wife's title, where the crop was set apart to her as personalty under the homestead laws, after it was made.

Judgment reversed.

D. H. Pope, Hines & Hobbs, Clark & Goss, for plaintiffs in error.

No appearance for defendant.

Sarah E. Lewis, Administratrix, vs. Joel R. G. Horne. Relief.

MONTGOMERY, J.

Where a widow, as administratrix of her husband, sues on a note made prior to June 1st, 1865, and offers to prove that herself and her minor children are the sole heirs of her intestate, that there are no creditors, and that the entire assets of the estate are less than the amount exempt under the homestead laws, the case should not have been dismissed for want of the tax affidavit under the Relief Act of 1870. Had the proof been made, it would have brought the case within the 14th section of that act.

Where a tax-payer returns notes held by him in bulk, at what he considers them worth, and pays the taxes regularly on the gross amount so returned, it is a sufficient compliance with the Act to carry the case to the jury.

Judgment reversed.

Hawkins & Guerry, for plaintiff in error.

W. A. Hawkins, for defendant.

Jacob Hiley, executor, vs. A. S. Hartridge. Relief, from Macon.

MONTGOMERY, J.

the Relief Act of 1868, he has had his day in court, and cannot afterwards open the judgment to let in the defenses provided for by that Act.

2. Where a levy was made prior to the Relief Act of 1870, but no sale has taken place, the plaintiff in fi. fa., is not obliged to attack his affidavit of the payment of taxes to the execution under the fifth section of that Act, so long as he takes no steps to force a sale.

Judgment affirmed.

W. A. Hawkins, for plaintiff in error.

Kil Warner, for defendant.

Wm. H. Brewer, agent for Kapp and David, vs. James M. Broadfield. Relief from Sumter.

MONTGOMERY, J.

1. Upon a motion to dismiss a suit for the want of the affidavit required by the Relief Act of 1870, it is not error in the court to hear and pass upon the evidence offered in support of the motion, especially where no objection is made at the time.

2. No allegations in the declaration, which, if true, would excuse the payment of taxes under the Relief Act of 1870, will dispense with the affidavit required by the Act, unless sworn to.

Judgment affirmed.

Hawkins & Guerry for plaintiff in error.

C. T. Goode for defendant.

ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCHES

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, February 21.—It is stated that Commissioner Douglass' bill, prepared at the request of the Committee on Ways and Means, concentrates the whisky tax at 70 cents.

The tariff bill, reported in the Senate from the Finance Committee, makes the duty on tea 10 cents, coffee 2 cents, rock and bulk salt 9 cents per cwt., packages 12 cents per cwt., cleaned rice 1½ cents per pound, hides and skins 5 per cent ad valorem after the 1st of July. The duties on cotton, wools, silks, iron and steel will be reduced 10 per cent. Barley and various drugs are placed on the free list.

No Congress to-morrow.

The Senate were occupied during the entire day on the sale of arms question—Morton, Conkling and Sumner speaking. Conkling's amendment instructing the committee to enquire whether any Senator had been in unlawful communication with the agents of foreign governments, passed. This points at Sumner and Schurz, who partially base their call for investigation upon information furnished them by the Marquis de Chamberon.

Adjourned.

THE GEORGIA NATIONAL BANK CASE.—The Georgia National Bank petitions Judge Erskine of the United States District Court to restrain Capt. G. W. Anderson from retaining the books, papers and office of the bank, and that the books, etc., be turned over to them.

Capt G. W. Anderson, in his answer, states that he is acting under a mandate of Fulton Superior Court.

The case came up yesterday morning for a hearing before Judge Erskine.

The counsel for the State moved to dismiss the bill on the ground that the District Court had no jurisdiction, but the motion was overruled.

In conversation between counsel, Judge Stephens stated that he had delivered to Mr. Stocklin all the collection papers and Wrenn's special deposit.

Colonel L. E. Bleckley made the opening argument for the Bank. He said that the theory of the bill is, that allowing the attachment to be valid, the bond afforded no redress. The validity of the attachment was questionable. The books—records of a chartered institution—stock and deposit books, business letters—were not subject to levy and sale. The State had no right to the use of the books at all. The money found there was not subject to levy and sale. It was the right and duty of the Bank to keep a reserve fund, as provided in the Banking Law of 1864, of fifteen per cent. A State, nor any other authority, could enter a bank and take this fund, which was sacred. The State had appropriated the banking house. Even if the building had been levied on the plaintiff has no right to stay there. The State had no right to prevent the officers of the Bank from transacting their business one single hour.

Notes were not subject to attachment, and could only be reached by garnishment.

He contended that a judgment had no lien on notes, bonds and other choses in action, citing sections 3,310 and 3,524 of the Code, 6th Ga. Reports Cherry vs. Magee. He held that "neither money nor bank notes could be taken," citing Vol. 4, Comyn's Digest, title "Execution."

The English authorities were a unit that money was not subject to seizure, but American authorities are divided. That only could be sold upon which the judgment held a lien. Did anybody ever hear of money being seized? Judge Stephens remarked yes, in the Central Bank cases. The officer deals with property convertible into money—a maker, and not a sewer, of money. If, while acting under process against property, he proceeds against property not subject, the process is no protection to the officer.

If the process is legal then the District Court has no jurisdiction. He referred to the case in 2d Wheaton, where the collector authorised the seizure of a vessel and the officer detained the cargo. The owner of the cargo instituted a suit of replevin in the State court, and it was held that the authority to seize the vessel did not carry the right to hold the cargo. The State never sent Capt. Anderson after assets not subject. The reserve fund was set apart by United States law, and could not be interfered with by State law. He cited the case of Crocker vs. Gober, page 455, 2d Cobb Reports. The word property was wrongly construed. In the case of Astram vs. Hammond, page 167, 2d McLean, it was held that an unconstitutional law afforded no justification to an officer.

The charter of the bank authorizes it to sue in any circuit court. Suits may be brought by or against it. It is held in 9th Wheaton, page 738, that a court of equity may restrain an officer of the State, acting under a void law. He cited a case on page 257, 24th Howard, where it was held that the corporate franchise on canals to take tolls, was not subject to levy or sale, or the lands and works necessary to the enjoyment of the franchise. To destroy the franchise of the bank conflicts with the express letter of the statute setting apart the reserved fund.

Judge P. L. Mynatt followed in an argument for the State.

He contended that the United States Court had no jurisdiction. The case to come under the jurisdiction of the court, must arise from questions touching the validity of the United States law, or the construction of rights under that law.

The Bank was an artificial person, and had no greater power conferred upon them than any other person, except the law. The Supreme Court of the United States (page 264, 6th Wheaton) in the case of Cohens vs. Virginia, involving the statutory right to vend lottery tickets, decided that the District Courts of have jurisdiction only where they had jurisdiction of the subject matter or the parties. To have jurisdiction of the subject matter the Supreme Court decides the case must be touching the validity or constitutionality of a law of the United States.

It is the duty imposed on the banks to deposit the bonds for the protection of its creditors. The reserved fund of fifteen per cent. is not connected with the franchise.

The Banking Law provides for the bringing of suits in United States Courts for violations of its provisions. He cited the case of Bullen vs. Mann in Cranch's Reports, and in 1st Cranch. The Supreme Court has decided that money may be taken. The State was not an application for injunction, but virtually a writ of ejectment.

Judge Lyon said that over the case [illegible] the charter of the bank gave to this and every other bank the right to sue and be sued, in any court as fully as natural persons.

He cited the case of the United States Bank vs. Devaux in 5th Cranch. United States Banks could only sue in United States Courts as persons and not under the charter. The jurisdiction must be given by act of Congress and cannot arise under the laws of the United States. The bank in its capacity to sue and be sued is placed on a footing with natural persons. It has no power to sue in the courts of the Union unless specifically expressed.

The 9th section of the bank act subjects the President and Directors to action for putting in circulation more notes, etc., in federal or State courts. The law provided for two jurisdictions.

For certain actions arising "under this act" (Bank Act) the jurisdiction was confined alone to the Federal courts.

For actions growing out of person, jurisdiction was confined to State courts. The case cited from 8th Wallace was the action of the bank vs. the stockholders to enforce the payment of stock. Counsel seek to bring the bill within the jurisdiction of court by claiming that this "Reserve Fund" was set apart by United States law. The law declares this reserve fund must be in lawful money of the United States. Specie and legal tender notes are the only lawful money. The amount of circulation and of deposits is not given in the bill, and it fails to make out a case under the Banking Act.

It is the duty of the bank to have this reserved fund and pay all of its debts. The obligation to pay its debts is higher than that to keep the reserved fund.

The District Court has no jurisdiction because the State Court has already jurisdiction of it. Captain Anderson as an officer of the State Court was executing its process.

In the Osborne case and the Deveaux case, the property seized was money. In the Osborne case the act was declared unconstitutional, because the process was not issued by a court. So in the case of the cargo of the vessel.

Judge Hopkins has jurisdiction over the parties. It is a suit of the State vs. a citizen. The proceeding is under a special attachment law. The questions involved in this bill arise out of the cause, and Judge H. has a right to hear all questions. This proceeding cannot be arrested by proceedings in the United States or any other courts. The State has a right to have these questions heard in a State court. Suppose Judge Erskine instructs his Marshall to enjoin Capt. Anderson, cannot Judge Hopkins enjoin the Marshal? Why not? Counsel smile at the idea of the States being sovereign, but the Supreme Court still treat them as such. In any Northern State such a proceeding would be resisted.

There is no equity in the bill. The bank declare that they have been trespassed upon by an insolvent man. They have their remedy in trover or ejectment. They have no franchise to keep them from paying their debts. The mail carrier has a right to carry the mails.

But his franchise does not prevent the seizure of his carriage or motive power, for debt.

The bank pray the court to "restrain from retaining"—"restrain" a man from "retaining" possession of his house? It was an effort to restrain an officer of a court, and asking Judge Erskine to anticipate the judgment of the State Court.

The Code does not say that judgments convey no lien on promissory notes; it does not say that they can't be levied on. Ordinary attachments are issued on the ground of guilt. The present case is under a special attachment law. He quoted from Senator Hillyer's recovery bill. The process was issued against all the property of the defendant. There was no qualification before property. Property included everything. It directed that a certain amount—not the identical bills—or property fraudulently or unlawfully detained be secured.

There was not a special deposit now remaining in the bank. He was authorized by His Excellency Governor Smith to say that he would recommend the General Assembly to place general depositors on the same footing, and that body would doubtless give them full relief. The State Court should at least be the first to construe the statute, having the case already under consideration.

The argument will be concluded this morning at half past ten o'clock by A. T. Akerman for the bank.

Has made the most astonishing Cures; so quick, so rapid are the changes the Body undergoes, under the influence of this Truly Wonderful Medicine, that EVERY DAY'S USE IS SEEN IN FLESH AND WEIGHT IS SEEN AND FELT.

THE GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER.

Every drop of the SARSAPARILLIAN RESOLVENT communicates through the Blood, Sweat, Urine, and other fluids and juices of the system the vigor of life, for it repairs the wastes of the body with new and sound material. Scrofula, Syphilis, Consumption, Glandular disease, Ulcers in the throat, Mouth, Tumors, Nodes in the Glands and other parts of the system, Sore Eyes, Strumorous discharges from the Ears, and the worst forms of Skin diseases. Eruptions, Fevers, Sores, Scald Head, Ring Worm, Salt Rheum, Erysipelas, Acne, Black Spots, Worms in the Flesh, Tumors, Cancers in the Womb, and all weakening and painful discharges, Night Sweats, Loss of Sperm and all wastes of the life principle, are within the curative range of this wonder of Modern Chemistry, and a few days' use will prove to any person using it for either of these forms of disease its potent powers to cure them.

If the patient, daily becoming reduced by the wastes and decomposition that is continually progressing, succeeds in arresting these wastes, and repairs the same with new material made from healthy blood—and this the SARSAPARILLIAN will and does secure—a cure is certain; for when once this remedy commences its work of purification, and succeeds in diminishing the loss of wastes, its repairs will be rapid, and every day the patient will feel himself growing better and stronger, the food digesting better, appetite improving, and flesh and weight increasing.

Not only does the SARSAPARILLIAN RESOLVENT excel all known remedial agents in the cure of Chronic, Scrofulous, Constitutional, and Skin diseases; but it is the only positive cure for

CAN WOMAN KEEP A SECRET?—Men say women can't keep a secret. It is just the reverse—women can, men can't. Women carry with them to their graves secrets that would kill any man. Woman never tells; man always does. Woman suffers and dies; man blabs and lives. Man cannot keep a secret; woman cannot make it known. What is sport to the man is death to the woman. Adam was a sneak. Eve would have kept the apple a secret. Be ye fruitful. Who ever heard a woman talk about her love fiascos? Everybody has heard a man gossip. Man delights in telling of his illicit conquests; woman would cut her tongue out first. Men are course in their club room talk; women refined in their parlor conversation. Who ever heard of a woman telling of her lovers? Who has not listened to the dissipation of the men? Men boast; women don't. Women never tell tales out of school; men are always babbling. So down with another old adage. Women can keep a secret, and her ability to do so is proved by the conduct of a St. John's (Newfoundland,) girl, who did not tell her lover she was worth four millions in her own right until after the marriage.—Nineteenth Century.

NECKS AND ARMS.—One of the Eastern papers, speaking of the necks which are so lavishly exhibited by the toilettes of the day, says scraggy necks are the fashion, and where ladies have no hollows and creases and bones, they employ artists to paint them, and that a person would be astonished were he or she to have a view next morn of the necks which had appeared so old and yellow and wrinkled the night before, to see how plump and white they were. Another tells a story of a gentleman who had a lady on his arm who wore very handsome wide bracelets, and who was remarkable for the beauty of her arms. The lady's bracelet became unclasped, and while she was herself fastening it—which she insisted on doing—he observed a peculiar movement in her flesh from the wrist to the elbow. The movement continued all the while the lady was working with her bracelet, but ceased when she removed her hand. He concluded, from what he saw, that there were such things as arms, parts of which were laid aside at night.—Correspondence Exchange.

COST OF THE WAR.—The whole cost of the war to the Northern and Southern States from 1861 to 1865 is estimated as follows: Lives, 1,000,000; property, by destruction, waste, etc., $9,000,000,000. The gross expenditures of the United States from June, 1861, to July, 1866, were $5,792,257,000. Of this, the actual war expenses were about $5,-[illegible]23,000. The expense of States, counties, cities and towns in the Northern States not represented by funded debts have been estimated at $500,000,000.

The increase of State debts on the war account was $123,000,000. The increase of city, town and county debts is estimated at $200,000,000. Total war expenses of the Northern States and the National Government $6,165,237,000.

The estimated direct expenditures of the Confederate States on account of the war were $2,000,000,000.

Aggregate estimated expenses of the war to the country, North and South, $8,165,237,000.—Lynchburg Republican.

A FEW FACTS ABOUT THE POPES.—The whole number of Popes, from St. Peter to Pius IX., is 257. Of these 82 are venerated saints, 33 having been martyred. One hundred and four have been Romans, and 103 natives of other parts of Italy; 15 Frenchmen, 9 Greeks, 7 Germans, 5 Asiatics, 3 Africans, 3 Spaniards, 1 Dalmatians, 1 Hebrew, 1 Thracian, 1 Dutchman, 1 Portuguese, 1 Candiot, and 1 Englishman. The name most commonly has been John. The 23d and last was a Neapolitan, raised to the chair in 1410. Nine Pontiffs have reigned less than one month, thirty less than one year, and eleven more than 20 years. Only five have occupied the Pontifical chair over twenty-three years. These are: St. Peter, who was Supreme Pastor 25 years, 2 months and 7 days; Sylvester I., 23 years, 10 months, 7 days; Hadrain I., 24 years, 10 months, 17 days; Pius VI., 23 years, 8 months, 14 days; Pius IX., who celebrated his 25th year in the Pontifical chair, June 16th, 1871.

JOURNALISTIC AMENITIES.—This is the way the Ohio State Journal glorifies a brother journalist:

The most attractive figure at the Nilsson opera, in Cincinnati, we are told by visitors, is that of R——d S——h, of the Cincinnati Gazette. Dressed in an irreproachable lavender cravat and claw-hammer coat, with his blonde hair flowing in frizzled ringlets of ravishing wormanship, he is a joy forever. His gloves are the envy and despair of the young bucks of the Queen City. His generous hands are first encased in a canvas covering from one of Phippe's sugar cured hams, to corset them into shape; then this is covered with green kid of the finest quality, by the base ball maker of the Red Stockings. Cockerill says he would be willing to die if he could achieve such a pair of gloves, and Halstead would give an eight-cylinder press to have such hair.

A NEW ANECDOTE OF WASHINGTON.—Dr. Lieber has a new story of Washington, coming to him from France through Laboulaye, that if not true certainly deserves to be. Jefferson one day visited Washington, and full as Jefferson was of French views and ideas of politics and everything else, he zealously attacked the system of two houses of Congress. General Washington replied that Jefferson was much better informed than himself upon such topics, but that he himself would adhere to the experience of English and American history. "You, yourself," said the General, "have proved the excellence of two houses, this very moment." "I," said Jefferson, "how is that?" "You have," replied the heroic sage, "poured your hot tea from the cup into the saucer to cool it. It is the same thing we desire in the two houses."

LEGISLATIVE COMPENSATION.—Massachusetts pays the members of her Legislature $750 each per session; Pennsylvania, $1,000; Maine and Vermont pay $2, Rhode Island $1, and New Hampshire $2.50 per day, New Jersey gives $3 per day for the first 40 days, and after that comes down to $1.50, which has a discouraging effect upon long sessions. Delaware, West Virginia, Michigan, Indiana, New York, Kansas and Nebraska pay $3 per day; Tennessee, $4; Missouri, Maryland and Iowa, $5; North Carolina, Arkansas, Alabama, Virginia, South Carolina and California, $6; Georgia and Mississippi, $7; Louisiana and Texas, $8, and Nevada, $10. Wisconsin pays $350 a session, and in Illinois and Florida the rate is fixed at each session.

DEATH OF A MISER'S DAUGHTER.—The Albany Knickerbocker tells a sad story of the death of a young lady residing in that city, who was to have been married on the day on which she died. She suffered from a prostrating though not necessarily fatal disease; and her father, who is reported to be worth over $100,000, refused to secure medical care. Finally the young lady's betrothed secured a physician, but it was too late. The funeral was a very large one, and it is reported that the expense of the coffin, carriages, etc., was borne by the young man to whom the lady was engaged to be married.

THE LOSS BY THE REBELLION.—The Superintendent of the Census estimates the loss of population by the late rebellion as follows: Direct loss from wounds and disease, 500,000; additional Confederate loss, 350,009; indirect loss by the withdrawal of 1,500,000 men from domestic life, and the consequent diminution of births, 1,385,000; loss by the check given to immigration, 354,000; retardation of increase in the colored population, 592,000—total, 3,000,000.

☞The following is the recommendation given an English servant:

"The bearer has been in my house a year minus eleven months. During this time she has shown herself diligent—at the house door; frugal—in work; very mindful—of herself; prompt—in excuses; friendly—toward men; faithful—to her lovers; and honest when everything had vanished."

☞A woman lately hung herself because her husband objected to her talking with the male boarders, and left this last will and testament chalked on the back of a tea tray: "Dear Jim—You have driven me to do this little affair. Be good to the dog, and ask Mrs. Little to be kind to the birds."

☞A Poughkeepsie dry goods clerk last summer saved from drowning the cook of a canal boat. Recently he received a letter from the father of the girl, stating that "as ye saved the gal, she's your'n." Strange to say, he "don't see it."

☞Josh Billings says: "Injuns can be civilized once in a while, but it knocks at least 20 per cent. oph from the value ov the Injun, besides hurting the general reputation of civilization."

OLD PREJUDICES ARE DYING OUT. New facts are killing them. The idea that invalids weakened by disease can be relieved by prostrating them with destructive drugs, is no longer entertained except by monomaniacs. Ever since the introduction of DR. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS it has been obvious that their regulating and invigorating properties are all-sufficient for the cure of chronic indigestion, rheumatism, constipation, diarrhœa, nervous affections, and malarious fevers, and they are now the standard remedy for these complaints in every section of the Union.

THE BONDS OF GEORGIA.

Official Notice to the Bond Holders.

An Act

To protect the people of the State of Georgia against the illegal and fraudulent issue of bonds and securities, and for other purposes connected with the same.

Whereas, Divers bonds, purporting to be bonds of the State of Georgia, and divers bonds bearing the indorsement of the State, have been issued and put in circulation by Rufus B. Bullock, late Governor of said State, and divers bonds issued prior to his administration, have been negotiated by him: And whereas, it is believed that a large portion of said bonds have been illegally and fraudulently issued and negotiated, and the extent and amount of said bonds so issued and negotiated is unknown to this General Assembly.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Georgia, That there shall be a committee appointed of three, one by the President of the Senate, and two by the Speaker of the House of Representatives, who shall have full power and authority to examine and ascertain the number of bonds which have been issued as hereinbefore recited in the preamble of this act, and the aggregate amount thereof; and so far as they have been sold or hypothecated, by whom sold, the amount of money paid, to whom paid, when paid, for what purpose negotiated, and all other facts connected with the history of said bonds, and to report the same to the General Assembly at its next session.

Section 2. Be it further enacted, That said committee so appointed, be authorized and required to meet and sit in the city of Atlanta during a term not exceeding sixty days, commencing March 1, 1872, for the purpose named in the first section of this act, and said committee are hereby invested with full power and authority to examine witnesses under oath, to send for persons, books and papers, and to exercise such other power as may be necessary to carry into effect the provisions of this act.

Section 3. Be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of said committee, immediately after their appointment to give notice of the time and place of sitting by publishing this preamble and act, at least two months prior to their sitting, in two newspapers in the city of Atlanta, two in the city of New York, two in the city of London, and one in the city of Frankfort.

Section 4. Be it enacted further, That all persons holding bonds of the State of Georgia, or bearing the indorsement of said State, issued since July, 1868, are hereby required to report the same to said committee for registration on or before the first day of April, 1872, and upon failure so to report said bonds, and to submit the same for registration, the same shall be deemed prima facie to have been illegally or fraudulently issued.

Section 5. Be it further enacted, That the Treasurer of said State, be, and he is hereby prohibited from paying any interest on any bonds issued, negotiated or indorsed by the State since the 4th day of July 1868, until said Committee shall have made their report and the General Assembly shall otherwise direct.

Section 6. Be it further enacted, That nothing contained in this act shall be so construed as to pledge the State of Georgia to the payment of any bonds issued or indorsed by the State since the 4th day of July, 1868, by reason of said bonds being registered as prescribed in this act, should it afterwards appear that the same have been illegally or fraudulently issued.

Section 7. Be it further enacted, That the Governor be and he is hereby authorized and required to draw his warrant upon the Treasury in favor of said committee or such persons as they may designate for an amount sufficient to defray the expenses of publishing this preamble, and such other printing as may be necessary to carry into effect the provisions of this act.

Section 8. Be it further enacted, That all laws and parts of laws militating against this act be and the same are hereby repealed.

OFFICE SECRETARY OF STATE,
ATLANTA, GA., December 12, 1871.

The above and foregoing four pages of written matter contain a true and correct copy of the original of file in this office.

Given under my hand and the seal of office.

DAVID G. COTTING,
Secretary of State.

To all whom it may concern:

Notice is hereby given, that we, the undersigned joint committee, appointed by the President of the Senate and Speaker of the House of Representatives, under authority of the foregoing act of the General Assembly of Georgia, will begin our sittings in the city of Atlanta, State of Georgia, United States of America, on the first day of March, 1872, and will remain in session until the first day of May, 1872, for the purposes indicated in said act.

The attention of persons owning or holding the bonds of the State of Georgia, or the bonds of railroads indorsed by the State of Georgia, and who expect to present the same to the committee, is called to the first section of said act, as to the nature of the testimony required.

Persons desiring to communicate with the committee will address Thomas J. Simmons, Chairman, care of N. L. Angier, State Treasurer, Atlanta, Ga.

Signed at the Capitol, in the city of Atlanta, State of Georgia, United States of America, the 12th day of December, 1871.

THOMAS J. SIMMONS,
On the part of the Senate and Chairman of Joint Committee,

GARNETT MCMILLAN,
JOHN I. HALL,
On the part of the House.

DR. R. V. PIERCE, of Buffalo, N. Y., in his book on Chronic Diseases, says in regard to his Golden Medical Discovery, with which our readers are familiar: "From its wonderful power over Consumption of the Lungs, I had thought strongly of calling it my Consumptive Cure; but from the fact that it is a perfect specific for the sore throat and hoarseness to which ministers and other public speakers and singers are subject, and also for Bronchetis, and all severe coughs, and is an invaluable remedy for diseases of the liver, and also as a Blood Purifier, I decided not to apply to it a name which might mislead and prevent its use in other diseases for which it is so admirably adopted.

"It will cure a cough in one-half the time necessary to cure it with any other medicine, and it does it not by drying it up, but by removing the cause—subduing the irritation, healing the affected parts."

This valuable medicine is sold by all first-class druggists. feb20-d1w&w1t.

FOUR MILLIONS OF INVALIDS.—At the lowest computation there are never less than four millions of invalids in the United States. Of this number probably more than three-fifths have neglected the ordinary precautions necessary for the preservation of health, and are suffering the punishment due to their carelessness. If the multitudes who are now afflicted with biliousness, indigestion, rheumatism, intermittent fever, irregularities of the bowels, general debility, nervous disorders, etc., had at the very first symptoms of indisposition, invigorated, regulated and purified their systems with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, two-thirds of them would at this moment be performing the active duties of life, unannoyed by any ailment of the body or mind.

This assertion is made advisedly. It is founded on experience, and is born out by the testimony of a countless host of witnesses, whose attestations cover almost every variety of disease, and extend over a period of about twenty years. Of every thousand persons who take the Bitters, as a preventive of the complaints above enumerated, seven-eighths escape them entirely; and of every thousand who are actually attacked, and use the great Vegetable Tonic as a remedy, three-fourths are radically cured. These are not hap-hazard assertions, but statistical facts. They are based upon the results of inquiries made by more than fifty thousand persons, in various parts of the country, and upon the letters of prominent citizens of every state, it might almost be said, of every county in the Union. feb20-deod1w&w1t

YEAS AND NEIGHS.—If horses could make themselves understood in human language, they would signify by an universal "Yea," their assent to the statement that the Mustang Liniment is the best remedy extant for all these external ailments, and by a most emphatic "Neigh!" show their displeasure at every attempt to use any other preparation in its stead. Ever since its introduction at St. Louis, at the close of the Mexican war in 1849, it has proved a signal blessing to horse and man—curing, with absolute certainty and wonderful dispatch, such equine diseases as spavin, ringbone, poll evil, scratches, hoofale, etc., and relieving and finally removing the painful affections which attack the muscles, sinews and external glands of human beings. It is a fact beyond contradiction that for all injuries or complaints of man or quadrupeds to which an external remedy is applicable, the Mustang Liniment is preferable to every other. feb20-deod1w&w1t

A HOUSEHOLD NECESSITY—Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder and Special Flavorings. So elegant are the cakes and pastry made with them, that no person will use any other after one trial.
feb20-deod1w&w1t

AN EXPENSIVE NUISANCE.—Sickness is an expensive nuisance; generally makes people selfish, and, nervous, mean, and miserable. To escape these dreadful troubles, keep the blood enriched, the nerves strong, by using Dr. Price's Blood Enricher, before the diseases has taken a firm hold. This remedy contains the agents in proportion calculated to impart physical and mental vigor. If not found at one drug store, will find it at another. Ask for Dr. Price's Blood Enricher.
feb13—deod2w&w2t

VALUABLE AND RELIABLE.—"BROWN'S Bronchial Troches" are in valuable to those exposed to sudden changes, affording prompt relief in coughs, colds, etc.

I HAVE been a dyspetic for years; began to use the Simmons' Liver Regulator two years ago; it has acted like a charm in my case.

ATLANTA
City Hospital.

THE need of a CITY HOSPITAL for Atlanta has long been felt, but all efforts heretofore for the establishment of such have failed, our people being too poor to raise the money necessary for such a purpose, and the depleted condition of our State Treasury being such as to render successful legislation in the matter both impracticable and hopeless.

It is, therefore, proposed to appeal to all friends of so benevolent a project, and thus secure a nucleus to encourage an increase of the private donations already promised, which will render the scheme a success; and while the erection of such an Institution will be an enduring Monument to the Charity and Liberality of our citizens, it will also be in keeping with our onward march in the cause of
